

Photo credit: Micah Projects

How can people who are homeless STAY SAFE IN DISASTERS?

HAVE YOUR SAY

The Department of Communities, Housing and Digital Economy and The University of Sydney invite services to participate in vital research in Queensland.

Our project is investigating how to enable person-centred emergency preparedness (P-CEP) and cross-sector collaboration to help ensure that “no one gets left behind.”

YOUR VOICE IS IMPORTANT and will guide future resources for the sector.

More info:

Homeless Inclusive Disaster Risk
Reduction Project
helen.styles@sydney.edu.au
02 8627 8613

SURVEYS ARE OPEN NOW until 31 May

A rep from each organisation is invited to take:

Emergency Preparedness Survey of Housing and Homelessness Service Organisations

Staff and volunteers are invited to take:

Emergency Preparedness Survey of Individual Service Providers (Staff or Volunteers)

COMING SOON

We hope you will assist your clients to access:

Emergency Preparedness Survey of People with Experiencing Homelessness

Funded by

THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY

Community Services
Industry Alliance